Well, well...are your "wheels" turning? Now you are really armed with good information. You can make a well-informed decision now! Out of all of the information you have gathered about yourself and careers to this point, you should now pick ONE career possibility that you feel is most promising for you to consider! I know it is hard...there are so many wonderful career choices...but pick ONE. Got it? Here is your next task:

Gather Information on your career choice!

1. What career do you chose?
2. What is the job outlook in that career?
3. What is an expected salary in that career?
4. What is this career like?
5. What do you do in this career?
6. What are the educational requirements for this career?

Use the following resources:

www.careeronestop.org or www.bls.gov/oco/

Next, find FIVE colleges in the United States that offer a degree in your career choice. (If your career choice does not involve getting a college degree, you must see me for instructions.)

Use the following on-line resources:

www.petersons.com, www.collegeboard.com, www.anycollege.com, www.princetonreview.com, www.mycollegeoptions.org, www.ecampustours.com, www.campustours.com, and www.youniversitytv.com.

Now, one final piece of information is needed, and then you will be ready to produce documents to help you with your future career!

4. Find ONE job opening right now in the career field that you have selected.

Use the following resources:

www.monster.com, www.careerbuilder.com, www.jobopenings.net, www.jobbankinfo.org,
www.usajobs.gov
