Student Spotlight! Meet Tyler Williamson a Thomas County Central High School alumna from the graduating class of 2017. Tyler was a member of our Future Business Leaders of America chapter, and served as the Chapter and Region One President. She competed nationally twice in FBLA specializing in Website Development and Business Plans. Tyler currently attends the University of Georgia pursuing a degree in Marketing from the Terry College of Business and Journalism from the Grady College of Journalism and Mass Communications. She will graduate this upcoming May, and has already accepted a full time offer with Acuity Brands in Atlanta, Georgia. She will be a part of Acuity's Marketing Leadership Program working in different areas of their Marketing department.
