

Today I'd like you to google and find a case in the last 10 years that has been about some sort of Employment Law issue. A discrimination case, or an employee suing their employers over Title VII. It could even be about a law we have not discussed yet like FMLA (Family Medical Leave Act). Read the article, then complete the following and submit to schoology.

What is the link to your article?

<https://www.oyez.org/cases/2017/16-1466>

Summarize the article in 1-2 paragraphs below, tomorrow we will share in class what each one of you found so make sure you find an article with good information and that you understand it well.

Janus v. AFSCME was a landmark US labor law United States Supreme Court case concerning the power of labor unions to collect fees from non-union members. The state of Illinois' removal of agency fees from disapproval public-sector employees violates the First Amendment Abood v. Detroit Bd. of Ed. which concluded otherwise is overruled. Goldstein & Russell, P.C. whose attorneys contribute to this blog in various capacities is among the counsel on an amicus brief in support of the respondents in this case. 5-4 in an opinion by Justice Alito on June 27, 2018. Justice Sotomayor filed a differ opinion. Justice Kagan filed a differ opinion in which Justices Ginsburg, Breyer, and Sotomayor joined.