

FBLA Future—Activity 22

Involvement in FBLA is a great way to develop skills needed for future success.

Read the FBLA Creed and write a business memo about what the creed means to you and your future in the business world. Be sure to use proper memo format.

FBLA-PBL Creed

- I believe education is the right of every person.
- I believe the future depends on mutual understanding and cooperation among business, industry, labor, religious, family, and educational institutions, as well as people around the world. I agree to do my utmost to bring about understanding and cooperation among all of these groups.
- I believe every person should prepare for a useful occupation and carry on that occupation in a manner that brings the greatest good to the greatest number.
- I believe every person should actively work toward improving social, political, community, and family life.
- I believe every person has the right to earn a living at a useful occupation.
- I believe every person should take responsibility for carrying out assigned tasks in a manner that brings credit to self, associates, school, and community.
- I believe I have the responsibility to work efficiently and to think clearly. I promise to use my abilities to make the world a better place for everyone.

Emma Funderburk

FBLA CREED ASSIGNMENT

Involvement in FBLA is a great way to develop skills needed for future success. Read the FBLA Creed and write a summary of what the creed means to you.

FBLA Creed

I believe education is the right of every person.

I believe the future depends on mutual understanding and cooperation among business, industry, labor, religious, family, and educational institutions, as well as people around the world. I agree to do my utmost to bring about understanding and cooperation among all of these groups.

I believe every person should prepare for a useful occupation and carry on that occupation in a manner that brings the greatest good to the greatest number.

I believe every person should actively work toward improving social, political, community, and family life.

I believe every person has the right to earn a living at a useful occupation.

I believe every person should take responsibility for carrying out assigned tasks in a manner that brings credit to self, associates, school, and community.

I believe I have the responsibility to work efficiently and to think clearly. I promise to use my abilities to make the world a better place for everyone.

What it means me:

In my opinion, this creed means that we all need to work together (teamwork) in order to succeed. We cannot succeed on our own. Everyone must work together as a team and give their best in order to improve in what we are trying to do. We must realize when we do things, we not only represent ourselves, but also our friends, family, and business. Whatever happens, we must take responsibility for our actions. We always want to use our abilities in the best way we can possible. If we do these things, then we are guaranteed to be successful.

Teacher Feedback: 100/100

Good job on completing your form. Remember that all of your BAA activities will be averaged together for one project grade this 9 weeks. Great job of breaking down the FBLA Creed and picking out a very important aspect...teamwork. I think this is definitely what makes our chapter so strong and successful!