

Have you thought about what career path you would like to take after high school and/or college? If not, today is the day you start! I have designed this project to help you dive into what your strengths are and how they can help shape your career choices!

Complete the Career Survey, then answer the questions below:

Career Survey

Once complete read through the results, then copy and paste the link to your survey below, then answer the following questions:

1. What were your three highest career interest areas, and what % of your answers fit that career?
2. Do you think the test was accurate? Were you surprised by the listing of careers for you?
3. Have you thought of any of those careers before?

Have you thought about what career path you would like to take after high school and/or college?

If not, today is the day you start! I have designed this project to help you dive into what your strengths are and how they can help shape your career choices!

Complete the Career Survey, then answer the questions below:

Once complete read through the results, then copy and paste the link to your survey below, then answer the following questions:

Good Job 10/10

1. What were your three highest career interest areas, and what % of your answers fit that career?

Social Science - 83.33%

Healthcare - 75%

Technology - 75%

2. Do you think the test was accurate? Were you surprised by the listing of careers for you?

I do have an interest in the career of psychology and sociology, And was surprised by Healthcare.

3. Have you thought of any of those careers before?

I've thought of psychology or providing help for people who need someone to talk to, and assist in being mentally better. I've also had the thought of using technology before to lead into a career,